Professional Biography

I currently hold the title of Director of Educational Engagement and District Initiatives in a Pennsylvania school district. I have been training schools both locally and in the U.S. in Restorative Practices and working with at-risk-youth for over 26 years. I earned my bachelor's from Ashford University and a Masters in Restorative Practices from the International Institute of Restorative Practices. I am a licensed restorative practice trainer in Restorative Practices, Restorative Conferencing, motivational speaker, and a Safe Crisis Management trainer. I have been able to lead school districts and organizations in achieving positive culture/climate for both students and staff, for over 26 years.

In addition, I was an assistant administrator of a day treatment, mentoring, and weekend alternative program in Pennsylvania, and was able to lead the program(s) to earn the 2014 & 2021 - Juvenile Court Judges Commission Community-Based Program of the year, and the 2021 - Pennsylvania Department of Education most Distinguished Program Award in Pennsylvania.
